OFFICE OF THE STATE CONTROLLER RELEASES JULY MONTHLY FINANCIAL REPORT

RALEIGH – For July 2012, North Carolina experienced a decrease in General Fund receipts which include tax and non-tax receipts. Tax revenues decreased by $74.1 million or 4.9 percent and non-tax revenues decreased by $2.9 million or 8.7 percent.

The General Fund's unreserved fund balance as of July 2012 was $660.3 million as compared to $947.4 million as July 2011.

This information is contained in the most recent monthly report on the General Fund compiled by the Office of the State Controller. This report can be found at www.osc.nc.gov. Go to "Recent Publications" and click on "General Fund Monthly Financial Report -- July." The OSC website includes General Fund monthly budgetary basis financial information back through June 1998.

The following graph shows the daily fluctuation of the unreserved fund balance for the current and prior fiscal years.

The State Controller is North Carolina’s chief fiscal officer. The Office of the State Controller serves as an independent resource to ensure the financial integrity of the State by providing accounting, disbursing, payroll, internal control and financial reporting systems that serve state agencies, employees and the public and maximizing financial return through its statewide cash management plan. The OSC issues numerous financial reports including: General Fund Monthly Financial Report, IT Expenditures Report, Statewide Accounts Receivable Report, the State’s Comprehensive Annual Financial Report (CAFR) as well as the short, easy-to-read version of the CAFR known as the “popular” report.
